Umeed Sey Agay: Where Awareness Becomes Strength!

The Hunar Foundation, in collaboration with Dar-ul-Umeed Skills Studio, hosted “Umeed Sey Agay” a breast cancer awareness event, attended by over 1000 participants, at Sadabahr Marquee, Karachi. The session emphasized the importance of early detection, open dialogue, and health education, creating a space filled with empathy, understanding, and courage.

Cancer survivors took the stage to share their stories, reflecting on their journeys of resilience, healing, and hope. Their words left the audience deeply inspired, reminding everyone that strength often begins with awareness.

Initiatives like these promote not only vocational excellence but also holistic well-being and community awareness. Through such events, THF reaffirms its commitment to developing not just skilled professionals, but informed and compassionate individuals who carry awareness into every part of life.

Beauty Alumni Meetup — Supporting Growth Beyond the Classroom!

The Saeeda Naseem Technical Institute (SNTI) hosted its Beauty Alumni Meetup, welcoming over 70 graduates. Led by Ms. Rehana, a renowned beauty expert, the meetup explored the evolving landscape of the beauty industry, including the expanding role of Aesthetic Assistants in professional cosmetology.

The event allowed graduates to reconnect, share experiences, and explore new career path through interactive discussions, live demonstrations, and Q&A sessions. Through such initiatives, THF continues to strengthen alumni networks, foster professional growth, and build a thriving ecosystem where skills lead to sustainable livelihoods.

Enabling Innovation through Digital Literacy!

At THF's Emerge Incubation Center, a thought-provoking session was held on Digital Literacy and the Future of Pakistan's IT Sector, led by Ms. Adeela Mir, Head of Incubation at Skillsrator. Sessions like these play a vital role in preparing THF students to think beyond employability — to innovate, adapt, and eventually create opportunities for others. The gathering shed light on how digital fluency and AI-driven tools are redefining industries, opening doors for new ventures, and reshaping how young professionals engage with work and technology. By cultivating digital literacy, innovation, and entrepreneurial thinking, THF continues to cultivate an entrepreneurial mindset among youth in Pakistan's digital landscape.
